

Project ECHO AIIHPC

Enabling staff across acute and primary care services to share knowledge and experiences in supporting the community during the COVID-19 pandemic

5

Project ECHO Networks Established

- Nursing Homes
- Intellectual Disability Services
- Mental Health Services
- Disability Services
- Children with Complex Care Needs

25

Sessions to Date

- 11372 attendees
- 9688 views of recorded presentations
- Attendees from across the island of Ireland and across the globe

Topics Covered Included

- infection control
- personal protective equipment
- outbreak management
- symptom management
- remote consultations
- accessing services
- advance care planning
- palliative care
- end of life care
- self-care and resilience

"succinct, meaningful and practical as well as moving, invigorating and validating" Attendee

"This was a very important opportunity to support our colleagues facilitate informed end of life care" Panelist

feedback

SESSIONS FACILITATED BY:

- Age-Related Health Care Department of Tallaght University Hospital
- Trinity Centre for Ageing and Intellectual Disability
- HSE Community Operation Mental Health Services
- HSE National Quality Improvement Office, Disability Services
- Milford Care Centre

- Laura Lynn Ireland's Children's Hospice

AND SUPPORTED BY:

- Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services
- The Daughters of Charity Disability Support Service
- St Francis Hospice
- Health information & Quality Authority (HIQA)
- Topic experts

LEARN MORE ON THE
PALLIATIVE HUB PROFESSIONAL